HIGH COURT OF DELHI AT NEW DELHI

No. 164 /Rules/DHC

Dated : 01/12/2025

CIRCULAR

It is brought to the notice of this court by the office of the Director General of Prisons that the judicial remand extension of prisoners is conducted through Video Conferencing (VC) across all jails during working days of the court. However, on Sundays and other Govt. holidays, prisoners are produced physically before the Duty Magistrates for their judicial remand extension, as required under section 187 of The Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (BNSS, 2023). For this purpose, Nyaik Abhiraksha Vahini of Delhi Police arranges different vehicles and escort staff for court production of prisoners, depending upon their category and gender. It is further informed by the prison authorities that in case the prisoners are produced through VC on Sundays and public holidays, it will save huge expenditure involved in ferrying the prisoners to Courts and will help in proper mobilisation of forces for law-and-order duties. It will also help in mitigating any untoward incident on account of skeleton security staff during this period in the courts. They have further informed that during last 03 months i.e., 01.08.2025 to 31.10.2025, a total of 8979 prisoners were produced physically before the Duty Magistrate for their judicial remand extension. A request is received by this court from the office of the Director General of Prisons that appropriate directions be issued for allowing e-production of prisoners during holidays/Sundays for remand extension proceedings (copy enclosed).

The request of the Director General of Prisons has been considered by Hon'ble the Chief Justice who has been pleased to direct that the Duty Magistrates shall permit production of the accused through VC during holidays/Sundays for remand extension proceedings unless and until their presence is required in person for reasons to be recorded in the order.

Sub:-Physical Court Production of Prisoners before various Trial Courts during Sundays/Govt. holidays.

Sir,

It is to inform that the judicial remand extension of prisoners is conducted through VC across all jails during working days of the court. However, on Sundays and other Govt. holidays, Prisoners are produced physically before the Duty Magistrates for their judicial remand extension as required u/s 187 BNSS.

It is pertinent to mention here that an Apex level meeting took place under Chairmanship of Chief Secretary Delhi on 30.10.2025. In the meeting, it was discussed that many prisoners are produced physically for remand extension during holidays and Sundays for which Nyaik Abhiraksha Vahini, of Delhi Police arranges different vehicles and escort staff for court production of prisoners depending upon their category and gender. The Chief Secretary Delhi was of the view that when remand extension is possible during court working days through VC, then why not it is possible on Sundays and Public holidays. He has therefore directed the Prison Administrations to stop sending prisoners physically to court for the purposes of remand extension proceedings on Sundays and public holidays and to produce them electronically. This will not only help in saving huge expenditure involved in ferrying the prisoners to courts but also help in proper mobilization of forces for law and order duties. It will also help in mitigating any untoward incident on account of skeleton security staff during this day in the courts.

It is also submitted that during last 03 months i.e 01.08.2025 to 31.10.2025 a total of 8979 prisoners were produced physically before the Duty Magistrate for their judicial remand extension. Date wise physical court production of prisoners is attached for kind perusal. This list is comprehensive and inclusive of the court production of all the 16 jails in Delhi.

It is therefore requested to kindly consider issuing appropriate direction to the District Judiciary for allowing e-production of prisoners during holidays / Sundays for remand extension proceedings. This will also help in avoiding intermingling of different category prisoners in the jail vans and judicial lock-ups and saved work force is better utilized in law and order matters.

Yours faithfully
